

Clark Fitz-Gerald Maine Sculpture Trail

Clark Fitz-Gerald at the 1969 unveiling of Continuity of Community in Bangor.

We invite you to explore the Clark Fitz-Gerald Maine Sculpture Trail!

Clark Fitz-Gerald (1917-2004) moved to Castine, Maine in 1956. During his prolific career, he produced public and private sculpture commissions in the United States and England. Many are here in Maine. We hope you will enjoy viewing them as you travel around the state.

Clark Fitz-Gerald in his studio.

1 CASTINE, Maine

Adams School

- Adams School Weather vane, mid 1980s

Maine Maritime Academy

- Midshipman Fish Weather vane, 1995 Harold Alfond Student Center
- Fishes, 1962 Margaret Chase Smith Gymnasium
- Diatomis, 1980 Nutting Memorial Library, Platz Hall

Trinity Episcopal Church

- Adam and Eve Candelabra, 1981
- Christ on the Cross, n.d.
- Religious Symbols, n.d.
- Embroidered Kneelers, needle pointed by Clark's first wife, Leah Fitz-Gerald

Wilson Museum

- Seed of Life, 1980s

Clark Fitz-Gerald's Sculpture Studio, 8 Dyce's Head Road
The owners of this private property have given permission for visitors to view the outside of Clark's studio.

2 BLUE HILL, Maine

George Stevens Academy

- The sculpture is in front of the 1898 George Stevens Academy Building.
- Inuksuk, 1998

3 ELLSWORTH, Maine

Courthouse Gallery Fine Art

- They are hosting a show of sculptures by Clark-Fitz Gerald from June 12-July 7, 2023.
- Ebb and Flow, 1968

4 ORONO, Maine

University of Maine, Collins Center for the Arts

- Flames of Inspiration, 1986

5 BANGOR, Maine

St. Mary's Catholic Church

- Virgin Mary, 1989

Bangor Waterfront

- Corner of Front and Railroad Streets – on the waterfront trail
- Continuity of Community, 1969

All Souls Church

- Cross, 1979

United Technology Center

- Tetrahedron or Marriage of Art & Science, 1993

6 AUGUSTA, Maine

Maine Veterans' Cemetery

- Lady Slipper, 1968

7 BRUNSWICK, Maine

First Parish Church

- Cross, 1961
- Candelabra, 1961
- Collection Plates, 1961
- Adam and Eve Panel, 1961

8 SOUTH HIRAM, Maine

Sacopee Valley High School

- Square Peg in a Round Hole, 1982

Take one of our Clark Fitz-Gerald Maine Sculpture Trail brochures for sculpture locations, directions, and more information.