Intimate Dinner for 6-8 People Prepared and Served by Grant Gibson

Donated by Grant Gibson

Castine resident Grant Gibson, who is passionate about cooking with vibrant flavors from his travels around the world, will prepare an intimate dinner featuring the very best of Maine's summer bounty. Picture yourself along with six guests enjoying locally caught seafood with aromatic spices from India (that he hand carried back) showcasing peak season produce --sun soaked tomatoes and herbs from his garden transformed into French inspired dishes or sweet Maine corn elevated with techniques learned in Mexico City's bustling markets. This is a chance to experience how Maine's incredible seasonal produce becomes the canvas for a globally-inspired menu, creating an unforgettable evening where Down East meets far flung destinations, all served without having to lift a finger, relaxing in your own dining room with friends for an evening of food and warm hospitality and laughter.

Pearl Earrings by Julia Parish

Donated by Julia Parish

20k gold, natural “champagne” color freshwater pearl earrings.

About Julia:

Employing ancient goldsmithing techniques such as melting, rolling, forming and pulling metal into sheet and wire, Julia makes each piece by hand to create jewelry both unique and specific. Pearls of all shapes and sizes, rose cut diamonds & sapphires, rubies, moonstones and light reflecting crystals dominate. Working in high-carat gold and fine or sterling silver, Julia aims to create pieces that will endure in quality and style -- Never fussy or trendy, but graceful and elegant with a sprinkling of magical sparkle.
